

Amy Vance, Vice President

Amy M. Vance is an attorney currently practicing in the area of estate planning. She graduated from California Western School of Law in 2005 with a concentration in Child, Family, and Elder Law and has practiced for 8 years. Amy has been a public interest attorney representing parents in the San Diego Juvenile Dependency Court, operating landlord/tenant, guardianship, and juvenile immigration law clinics for the San Diego Volunteer Lawyer Program. Amy is Corporate Secretary of the Board for Catholics for the Common Good and Treasurer of the Thomas More Society of San Diego.