

Grace Williams, Founder, President, & Executive Director

Grace received her BA in Applied Linguistics in 2006 from Trinity Western University. She has volunteered in several ministries serving survivors of commercial sexual exploitation, including a Union Gospel Mission, Mary's Guest House, and the Missionaries of Charity's Homeless Women's Shelter. She has attended training with Treasures International, the Bilateral Safety Corridor Coalition, and Loren Fardulis of Kairos Youth and Family Services. In October of 2013, Grace founded Children of the Immaculate Heart and since then has served as Executive Director. Grace has been co-chair of the San Diego Board of Supervisors' Human Trafficking Advisory Council Victim Service Committee since 2015.
